Congressional News.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The report of the select committee on transportation routes to the seaboard [illegible] to the Senate make strong recommendation in favor of Government aid for the improvements on the Pacific coast. First [illegible] at the present session of Congress [illegible] and estimate for a canal and locks at [illegible] and the Dalles also further appropriations for improvements of Columbia and Willamette [illegible] aid in construction of two railroads [illegible] the head of ship navigation at Portland to [illegible] railroads running to the Eastern States. The reference is understood to be the Portland and Salt Lake Railroad and the North[ern] Pacific.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The House Committee on Public Lands will report adversely on Page's bill [illegible] to restore to the public domain lands granted but not yet patented to the At[lantic and] Pacific Railroad Company.

The Committee on Pacific Railroads have [illegible] a bill directing the Secretary of the [illegible] to [illegible] payment from the Pacific Railroads [illegible] five per cent. annuity due the Government [illegible] bonds, and providing that if the companies [illegible] the Attorney General shall bring suit [illegible] payment. Companies are also to distribute their share of award among members who contributed to pay the losses.

[illegible] on the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake R. R. Bill.

The bill reported by Senator Kelly to-day relative to the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad provides that the Government shall guarantee to pay 5 per cent. interest on the bonds of the Company to the extent of $8,000 per mile for ten years, for a distance not exceeding 700 miles, in return for which the Company are to transmit U. S. mail, army and Indian supplies etc. forever, free of charge. A written report, accompanying the bill shows that the mail and army service which this road would directly supersede costs the Government $[illegible] per annum; that the Government's [illegible] interest on the Company's bonds would amount to $[illegible] per year for ten years only and that the Government would in 20 years thus save by the construction of this road some $4,000,000. The report therefore, argues that aside from the vast benefits of a general nature to the country, the construction of the road would result in a direct pecuniary advantage to the Government.

A Straightforward and Plain Exposition of the Butler-Kelsey-Sanborn Job.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—The Committee on Ways and Means have submitted a report on the Sanborn contract case. They recite the origin of the law and give a history of the first contracts given under it—especially [illegible]. They say that paid Government officers furnished Sanborn with information by means of which he obtained a contract for collecting unpaid taxes, etc. [illegible] of delinquent railroads, he was instructed by [illegible] Treasury officials to add the names of nearly [illegible] railroad in the United States and this contract was made to include 592 roads instead of 14 as originally contemplated. While the law provides for three persons to assist the proper persons in collecting this contract provides that paid Government officials shall assist the contractor. It appears that the Commissioner of Internal Revenue wrote to the Secretary of the Treasury a remonstrance against the method of collection which was never answered. In no case do the Committee find the contractor assisting Government officers but the Government machinery was at the disposal of Sanborn. It is the opinion of the committee that a large percentage of the amounts collected under the contract could have been collected through the regular channels and were not properly subject to contract. The committee feeling alarmed at the looseness with which the Treasury Department was conducted attempted to elicit from its three highest officers where the responsibility rested. Each one professed ignorance of the matter and attempted to shift the responsibility. The ingenuity of the testimony given by the gentlemen is deplorable and the fact cannot be ignored by the committee that they deserve severe condemnation for the manner in which they permitted this law to be administered. There is nothing impeaching the integrity of Secretaries Boutwell and Richardson. The testimony proves no corrupt motive in their action. In justice to Secretary Boutwell it must be said, that contracts for collection of taxes had been given since Guthrie's term of office in extraordinary cases, and when the present Secretary came into office he found a number of such contracts in existence but upon examination he found no law authorizing them and had them annulled. In the light of evidence elicited during the examination, the committee believe that the contract law of May 1872 should be repealed and the contracts thereunder revoked and annulled and all demands of contractors against the Treasury be silenced by the passage of a bill embodying these conclusions which the committee report.

Supreme Court Decisions.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—In the case of the Oregon Steam Navigation Co. vs. Winsor and others error to Supreme Court of Washington Territory. In the case of the New World the Court below held the contract to be a restraint of trade and therefore void for considerations of public policy. That judgment is now reversed, the Court holding that the restraint of trade was not to such an extent as to invalidate a contract reasonable in its terms and founded on a valid consideration. It did not deprive the public of any of the business enterprise of the country but rather facilitated than otherwise, the business of the vendor. The price paid for the steamer was effected by stipulation as a consideration and the time of restraint was not longer than necessary to protect the vendors of the steamer. Justice Bradley delivered the opinion. The dissenting Justices were Clifford, Swayne and Davis.

As the building will be completed about the close of the present fiscal year and as the amount asked is actual cost of articles required the Secretary strongly recommends that the amount of the appropriation asked may be obtained.

MADRID, May 3.—Additional dispatches state that Gen. Concha who left the sea coast several days ago with 20,000 men to attack the Carlists' rear has gained the heights on the left bank of the river Nerva about Sobarento. The Carlist General Andechequa was killed in an engagement previous to the deliverance of Bilbao by Serrano's troops.

LONDON, May 3.—The Spanish Embassy's advices confirm the report of the occupation of Bilbao by the Government troops but the latest dispatches from Carlist sources say that Serrano entered Portugalete Friday afternoon and immediately started for Bilbao.

The Carlists concentrated between Portugalete and Bilbao and a desperate battle was begun at five o'clock on Saturday morning the result of which is not yet known. Meantime the Carlist siege battery redoubled its fire on Bilbao.

MADRID, May 4.—Serrano entered Bilbao Saturday. The municipality have sent congratulatory dispatches to Serrano and Concha. LONDON, May 5.—A part of the deck cargo of the steamer Ohio was burned during the passage from Philadelphia to Queenstown.

Lively Discussion in Parliament.

LONDON, May 4.—In the House of Lords to-day Lord Russell in view of the embittered feeling between France and Germany moved that copies of correspondence with these Powers be called for and asked what course the British Government would take in the event of a rupture between them.

Derby believed that peace for the immediate future was safe and he trusted that England would do everything to maintain peace short of embroiling herself in a struggle.

Russell withdrew his motion calling for papers in the Oregon boundary and Fenian raid questions. He said that the British people felt that the honor of England had been touched in the Washington Treaty negotiations, that the national character had been lowered and national interests jeopardized. The opinion generally exists in favor of compensation to Canadian sufferers by Fenian raids. He did not apprehend a repetition of these errors, but trusted that Great Britain would never seem afraid to do anything in assertion of her just rights.

SAN FRANCISCO, May [illegible].—Case of Peters and the special officers who paid several hundred dollars to keep their places under the new Chief excites universal and indignant comment. His assumed familiar relation with Cockrill and exposure of his actions culminating in his arrest for perjury led to the imputation that the Chief was cognizant of his tricks to obtain money from specials in the Chinese quarters but this is emphatically denied by the Chief and his friends who claim that Peters abused and betrayed his confidence.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Mary C. Nicker, second daughter of Capt. Nickerson of Gen. Crook's Staff, died at San Rafael to-day.

LINN COUNTY INDEPENDENT TICKET.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

From a dispatch as noticed in your paper of the 4th inst. in which it says "Great dissatisfaction exists about the Independent county nominees in Linn county," the operator doubtless was told this fabrication by an enemy. The assertion is wholly false. On the contrary there never has been a county ticket made in Linn that gives so much satisfaction as the Independent ticket of this county. The nominees are farmers with only one exception (the School Superintendent) and all are Grangers with only one or two exceptions. They are temperate men and the bone and sinew of Linn county. Independent strength is gaining every day and next June will poll a greater majority for the Taxpayers cause than was ever witnessed by any party victory in this county. T. F. Campbell has established a reputation in this county by his speech in Albany last Saturday that has confirmed the wavering minds of scores of Democrats, and it is a matter of general talk that Grover has lost heavily and utter rout and defeat only awaits him in June. Campbell is ahead of Grover and is every day gaining strength, while Grover is losing.

The Democratic ticket nominated here April [illegible] has given rise to a great deal of dissatisfaction [illegible] daily it is losing strength. The Locks of Santiam [illegible] entirely disgusted by the trick [illegible] practiced by the leaders in causing the slaughter of one of the best men in this county—Wm. Cyrus—whom everyone feels has been snubbed for a purpose. He has been one of our Commissioners and has left behind him a record for honesty and truth that will yet redound to his credit but not to the Democratic party. The Gibraltar of Democracy as styled heretofore will roll up a large victory for the People's ticket.

News of a [illegible] character about one of the Democratic Senators—Dr Hendrix of Harrisburg—the particular nature of which I will not state is causing great disgust and will end in the defeat not of him only but of the entire ticket if the report is true.

The fact of this county's being in debt nearly $[illegible] (in total of $1[illegible] as reported by the County Clerk) as reported by one of the Commissioners is also opening the eyes of our people. In fact, every day develops facts which are beginning to arouse all good men and you can be assured that Old Linn is going to make a huge revolution.

LINN COUNTY, May 5 1874.

The Statesman says: Gus Wheeler, the telegraphic operator at Salem went down the railroad some distance on a hand car to repair the lines and gives us some items of the lightning's doings. A short distance below the Fair Grounds the lightning had struck a pole knocked off both of the insulators, throwed one half of the pole across the track and left the remainder scattered around in many pieces. A little this side of Brooks two more poles had been struck and splintered up.

STATE TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.

Pursuant to call issued by the State Central Committee the State Convention met at the Good Templars' Hall in this city yesterday at 11 o'clock A. M. and was called to order by Rev. Clinton Kelly.

The Convention was opened by prayer after which Rev. C. Kelly was elected temporary Chairman and [illegible] Turner of this city Secretary. A number of delegates were in attendance and considerable interest manifested in the cause.

On motion the following named gentlemen were appointed as a Committee on Credentials: A. C. Walling, of Multnomah; Mr Bulling-[illegible] of Washington, and Rev. J. H. Roork of Marion.

The following committee was then appointed on Permanent Organization and Order of Business: F. W. Ryan, Rev. N. Clark and Rev. J. H. Skidmore.

The various committee retired to make out their reports, and during their absence ex-Governor Gibbs of this city, Rev. Mr Jones of Salem and Rev. G. W. Dimick made short and interesting addresses to the Convention.

The Committee on Credentials reported delegates present from Clackamas, Douglas, Jackson, Lane, Marion, Multnomah and Washington counties.

The Committee on Permanent Organization recommended the election of the temporary officers as permanent officers of the Convention, with the addition of Rev. M. Judy of Clackamas county as Assistant Secretary.

The two reports were on motion adopted and the following named gentlemen were appointed as a Committee on Platform: N. A. W. Howe of Lane, J. H. Stinson of Jackson, J. H. Lambert of Clackamas, Rev. A. Jones and G. W. Dimick of Marion and Wm. McLeod of Washington.

On motion the Convention adjourned to meet at 1 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention was called to order at 1 P. M. and on motion the question taken up was "What political action is necessary at the present time," pending the discussion of which the Committee on Platform submitted the following report, which was on motion unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The Temperance party of the State of Oregon in convention assembled declare that the [illegible] of [illegible] is to secure equal and exact justice to all, [illegible] the protection of the weak against the attacks and demands of the base and strong; and as this is most signally and continually [illegible] in all its forms; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we most emphatically affirm our full belief in the principles of total abstinence from all intoxicating beverages as affording the only basis for any permanently successful temperance movement.

2. That we, with all our might and by every lawful means will try to induce our Congressional and legislative bodies to enact laws prohibiting the importation, manufacture or traffic in intoxicating beverage, and that no party nor candidate for public office shall be supported by us at the ballot box or otherwise, who will not use all their influence to carry out the spirit of this resolution.

3. That we regard the public school system as grand in conception and vital to the life and honor of our country, and we desire such a change in our common school laws as will give at least six months free school each year in every school district in our State.

4. That we are in favor of a liberal expenditure on the part of our National Government in the improvement of our harbors and river channels.

[illegible] That we favor aid from Congress to the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad and in the extension of the Oregon Central Railroad through to its junction with the Oregon and California Railroad.

[illegible] That we demand the repeal of the Litigant Law and all laws increasing the salaries of State Judicial and county officers.

[illegible] That we are opposed to the purchase or leasing of the Locks at the Willamette Falls by the State.

8. That we invite the hearty co-operation of the noble and earnest women of our State in the cause of Temperance, until by the power of the ballot we may the more effectually banish the curse of intemperance from our land.

9. That it is the sense of this State Temperance Convention that it is important to the interests of our cause that we organize by nominating a Congressman and State and District officers to be supported at the coming June election.

A resolution was then offered and adopted that the candidates for a State Temperance ticket should be, so far as possible, selected from the tickets already in the field.

The following Central Committee was then appointed: Cyrus Walker of Washington; Professor T. J. Powell of Marion; J. H. Lambert of Clackamas; F. W. Ryan of Multnomah; N. A. W. Howe of Lane; F. I. Watson of Jackson and Rev. J. W. VanCleve of Douglas.

A motion was then made and adopted that nominations should be made by ballot.

The following nominations were then made:

For Congress—J. W. Davenport of Marion county.

For Governor—J. C. Tolman of Jackson county.

For Secretary of State—S. F. Chadwick of Douglas county.

For State Treasurer—D. G. Clark of Benton county.

For State Printer—Enoch Turner of Multnomah county.

For Superintendent of Public Instruction—T. J. Rowland of Wasco county.

On motion the various District Conventions were requested to choose their own candidates for district officers.

A number of excellent speeches were then made by the various delegates, and the utmost harmony existed throughout.

Resolutions were then passed indorsing the Temperance Star as the organ of the party, each member of the Convention pledging themselves to do all in their power to increase its circulation.

There being no other business the Convention adjourned after singing the Doxology.

STOP THE LEAK.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

The State is paying I think $6 per week for keeping its insane. The officers of the Penitentiary have made exact calculation of the cost of keeping the convicts of the State and find it to be $1 41 per week. This includes the expense of guarding, feeding and clothing them. I see no reason why the State cannot keep its own Asylum an insane patient as cheap as a convict. The nurses for the former will not cost more than guards for the latter. The lunatic requires a different class of food, but he will eat less of it and it will not be more expensive. In this calculation no account is made of the labor performed by the insane. It is calculated that not less than one third of the patients now in the Asylum support themselves by their labor. It is pretty certain that the State can save enough in four years by keeping its own insane to build an Asylum. But it is not certain that the next or any future Legislature will be strong enough to provide for building one versus the contractor's lobby. It is certain that none has been strong enough to do it in the past. A bill was introduced at the last session and smothered in a committee till near the close of the session specially called for it was announced by a committee man that it was lost or stolen. Under the spur of a sharp conflict and criticism it was at the last moment produced by him but the contractor interest represented during the whole session by an active and powerful lobby was sufficient to defeat it even if there had been time to pass it.

This matter of the support of the insane is the heaviest burden upon our treasury and steps should be taken without delay to relieve the tax payers of the State. An Asylum for the insane is far more needed than a Capitol and work on the latter should be discontinued for the next two years, and until an Asylum is built. Where the State is now paying $400 for legislative halls and offices, it can save more than $1,000 by keeping its own insane in its own building.

On Friday April 24th the members of the Jacksonville Sons and Daughters of Temperance Lodge instituted and organized a like organization at Central Point in the same county, of about 30 members.

At the last meeting of the Common Council of Salem, a petition was received asking that the Council prohibit railroad trains from running through the streets of the city at a greater speed than five miles. Referred to the Committee on Ordinance.

The crops and wild ranges are much benefited by it and every out-door attraction is much enhanced thereby.

The following is the ticket nominated by the Democratic Convention of Union county: Legislature, I. S. McComas, Dunham Wright; County Judge, I. C. Brainard; Sheriff, J. T. Cartis; Clerk, R. S. While cleaning a gun a few days since at Grant's Pass, Jackson county, it was accidentally discharged and the ball lodged in the arm of Mr George Crafts. On Tuesday last he called on Dr Lett and had the ball extracted. It had entered just above the wrist, passed round the arm and lodged on the opposite side about eight inches in an oblique direction from where it entered and was badly battered.

The Eugene Journal says: On last Saturday Miss Adelaide Coney, daughter of Mr Thomas Coney, was drowned in the McKenzie river. The particulars as near as we have been able to learn are as follows: Miss Coney and Miss Ella McCornac went out to take a walk and in their rambles came to the river bank where was tied a skiff. They heedlessly stepped into the skiff and seated themselves to rest and amuse themselves. The skiff not being securely fastened the rocking of the boat slipped it from its fastenings and floated it out into the current which soon carried them over some rapids just below where the boat was tied capsizing the boat and throwing both young ladies into the swift current. Miss McCornac, after sinking once or twice caught a limb projecting over the water and thus saved herself while Miss Coney passed out of sight. Her body had not been found up to the time our informant left yesterday noon. Miss Coney was a young lady about sixteen years of age and very highly respected in her neighborhood.

THE TERRITORIES.

The farmers in the vicinity of Walla Walla are accumulating a great many fine horses.

One hundred and thirty thousand feet of logs seized by an officer near Steilacoom will be sold at Olympia May 15th.

Two boats collided at Tacoma the other day. Neither of them was much damaged, but a boy on one of them named Walter Boardman was pretty severely injured.

A petition to the County Commissioners of Thurston county W. T. has been numerously signed at Olympia. It sets forth that the Northern Pacific R. R. Co. discriminates against the people of the county in the matter of charges contrary to the laws of the Territory and asks a committee be appointed by the Commissioners to examine the grounds of petitioners' complaint.

From the Walla Walla Union: During the week a gentleman from San Francisco has been in this city and valley taking a look at it from a railroad point of view. We learn that he contemplates making a proposal to finish the railroad from Wallula to this place and putting on a T iron rail and making it a first class road of the kind. He also thinks that if this were done he could effectually solve the Columbia river problem by building railroads around the Dalles and Cascade falls and putting on an opposition line of boats. The gentleman is understood to represent some of San Francisco's heavy capitalists and if he should undertake the job we have no doubt that he is able to carry it through.

THE CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR AT CORVALLIS.

CORVALLIS, May 5 1874.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

At the speaking here yesterday there was a large audience—many more people than could get into the Court House. Mr Campbell led off with an able and eloquent speech holding the profound and respectful attention of the audience for an hour and a half and was frequently warmly applauded. It was plain to be seen in the countenances of the audience that his positions and views were fully endorsed by a great majority of them.

Then Grover came forward and put in his hour and a half in offering excuses for the gross extravagance and wastefulness that Mr Campbell had proven upon his administration, the people showing evident signs of restlessness and dissatisfaction, and when an Albany friend of his tried to get up an applause, he was not seconded by more than three or four men in the entire audience.

Then Tolman came forward and put in half an hour of his turn in telling small anecdotes, some of which had sufficient point and wit to raise a laugh. Then his fund of anecdotes being exhausted and his buffoonery becoming stale he attempted to discuss some of the political issues of the day but his failure was so complete that it was apparent even to himself therefore he subsided having occupied only about one half his time.

You may set Benton county down as giving Campbell a large majority over both the other candidates and at least 300 over Grover's.

OBSERVER.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

The last Legislature among its evil deeds submitted several amendments to the State Constitution. These are to increase the salary of the Governor to $[illegible],000, that of the Secretary of State to $2000, Treasurer $2000, Circuit Judges $3000; to empower the Legislature to establish a separate Supreme Court of three Judges at pleasure (under our present Constitution, it cannot be done until our population amounts to 200,000); to empower the Legislature to increase the number of Circuit Judges at pleasure; to provide for letting the public printing to the lowest responsible bidder; to increase the salary of members of the Legislature to $5 per day and $5 for every 20 miles of travel (fare on the railroad is less than $1 for 20 miles)—the presiding officers to receive $7 per day; and increasing the session from forty to ninety days. This last amendment is especially pernicious. The Legislature does harm enough in forty days. The Lord save the State if it has to endure them for ninety. If the last one could have extended its robberies for fifty days longer Oregon would have been bankrupt beyond recovery.

These amendments must be voted upon by the next Legislature; if rejected, they become dead; if approved they are to be submitted to the people. The one respecting the public printing is the only one worthy of a moment's consideration and the remedy in that matter is more easily if not effectually applied by the two Houses abstaining from ordering unnecessary work, and by an act of the Legislature cutting off stealing, and providing for a sharp reduction of rates.

The best thing the Legislature can do is to promptly reject this whole batch of amendments. The salaries are high enough now. We ought to have a Supreme Court, but when we have 200,000 people as now provided will be as soon as we can afford it. We have Circuit Judges enough and in the language of the prayer book "Good Lord deliver us" from a ninety days' session of an average Oregon Legislature.

REFORM.

SOME NEW FIGURES.

FURTHER EVIDENCE OF GOVERNOR GROVER'S "STRUGGLES."

SALEM, May 5th, 1874.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

While examining questions of taxation and expenses of the State, allow me to give one item. C. A. Reed offered Chadwick, Secretary of State, all the second and third stories of the Opera House in Salem for $1,500 per year. The house has more capacity than the present buildings rented by the State, and yet the State pays

	Per Year
Jos. Holman	$2,000
Grover & Miller	1,3[illegible]0
Bill Watkinds	320
Bill Griswold	120
Making	$3,760

For which see report of Secretary of State for 1872. To which must be added

Room of Grover and Miller	$360
Rooms of Tom Patton	180	—$540

Making a total of $4,300 per year rents which is $2,800 more than is necessary and is pure "spoils of party."

This sum, for four years, makes a treasury leak of $11,200, and from present appearances the capital buildings will not be capable of use for the next four years, which will make the bill foot up for the eight years of Mr Grover's administration the sum of $22,400—a sum sacrificed to the cause of party, Mr Chadwick having admitted that he could not take the Opera House because he was under political obligations to his friends.

Now isn't it about time we adopted the one-term principle? There was no need of the above unnecessary and extravagant expenses and no reasonable excuse for the same, as the same spacious accommodations of the Opera House could have been had at any time during the last four years, and could yet be had for $1,500 per year.

THE RING'S DEFENSE

The only explanation the Bulletin has to offer in relation to the evidence published convicting the "associated editorship" of that paper, and his fellow scoundrels of contributing to a purse of several thousands of dollars with which to corrupt the last city election, is that others have given money for election purposes. It is stated that Gibbs has been in the habit of contributing to the expenses of the State elections, that Corbett and Failing, and J S Smith and Grover, and Durham and Hill have contributed to similar objects in times past.

This defense, taken in its broadest acceptation and intendment, is exactly equivalent to saying that if A is accused of a crime, he sufficiently answers the accusation by charging that at some previous date B committed a similar crime. Nobody can be humbugged with such a flimsy plea as that.

But what is shown of the facts? Have the other parties contributed money for any such corrupt purposes? There is no evidence of it. There is the bold assertion of Scott who is admitted by his friends, or such as he counts his friends, to be the most incorrigible falsifier in the State, and beyond that there is nothing. Why are not the lists published that make up the sum total of the purses to which these men contributed? That would settle the matter. That all men who take an active interest in political affairs—and every man should do so—contribute more or less to defray the legitimate expenses of elections, the expense of agitating the questions at issue, [illegible]ing forth speakers, music, etc., is true. [illegible] should blush to own that we had re[illegible] to do so whenever we were taking [illegible] active interest in the campaign; but [illegible] should blush more to own that we had ever contributed one dollar or one cent to be used for the corruption of the ballot-box. The amount that may be properly expended in an election depends, of course upon whether it is a general election or a mere local municipal election. Just think of a fund of $3 500—or, to be exact, $3,495—to be used in a city election! At the very outside $400 or $500 might be expended without downright bribery. Half that amount, however, is a liberal allowance.

Again we challenge the Bulletin to produce the list to which the persons named [illegible]tributed. It can not be produced. If [illegible] could the Bulletin would not have rested on mere general statement. Let the [illegible]of be forthcoming. They who are corrupt should suffer from the exposure no matter whose party they are in. For our [illegible] we are quite willing to have our con[illegible] with election funds, and elections, [illegible] to the broadest sunlight. There [illegible]er been an election to the ex[illegible] which we did not contribute [illegible] since we were of voting age, [illegible] were absent, but we challenge [illegible] being living to produce evi[illegible] we ever contributed a fund for [illegible] or to a fund larger than might [illegible] used. When did Gibbs, [illegible]ailing, Durham, Smith, make [illegible] corrupt use, or that they [illegible] on to suppose was for such? [illegible] is the evidence—give the cir[illegible] in detail, as we have shown [illegible] bribing fund.

Th[illegible] this defense is not only no [illegible] at all if it were true, but it is a [illegible]on. It is one of those lies [illegible] which Scott is notorious—an insidi[illegible] and laboriously worked-up, cowardly [illegible] falsehood. It is one of that class [illegible] that Tennyson referred to [illegible] he said

[illegible] half a truth is ever the blackest of [illegible] that the gentlemen referred [illegible] have contributed to the expenses of [illegible] The lie is that they have con[illegible] raise corruption funds. Re[illegible] what we have proved home upon the ring to what they dare not deny [illegible] for the last city election, and then [illegible] itself how that sum could have legitimately expended.

AN EXPLANATION

The "associated editorship" of the Bul[illegible] certainly in a pitiable condition. [illegible] has gone stark mad on the subject of Hill. Visions of "Hill" appear to fright[illegible] away the "associated editorship's" sleep by night and his reason by day. Hill puts up all the jobs on the ring, on the people, on everybody and everything, writes articles for various newspapers (always at the dictation of the bankers, steamboat companies, merchants, Grangers and other vicious classes), and in general puts his finger into everybody's pie. Not content with raising Cain in Oregon, (always by the secret instigation of the vicious classes aforesaid), this irresponsible demon has gone into the business (under the direction of the said vicious classes) of running the great journals of the East, which accounts for their general perversity on the question of partyism. That enterprising metropolitan paper, the Chicago Tribune, had a dispatch from Salem in regard to the meeting of the Independent State Convention, and thereupon the Bulletin declared that "Hill" had been sending dispatches to the Tribune. Then a few days later the Tribune contained an editorial article on the contest in this State, which, coming under the eye of the Bulletin's associated editorship" produced this:

Hill has been at it again. He has furnished material for an article on Tim Davenport, which is published in the Chicago Tribune.

For the purpose of quieting the "perturbed" nerves of the "associated editorship" we will assure him that we did not write or send any dispatch to the Tribune, and that we have not been running the editorial department of that journal, and that while our influence is so extensive and irresistible as to render it quite certain that any suggestion we might make as to the editorial management of any of the great newspapers would be accepted and acted upon without a question, we have steadily pursued the policy of permitting those papers and the Chicago Tribune for one, to be conducted according to the ideas of the persons who are charged with their immediate control. This explanation, we trust, will be satisfactory to the "associated editorship" of the Portland Bulletin, and it cannot but be gratifying in the extreme to the Eastern press to read this plain declaration of our intention to allow them such extended liberty.

MORE UNLOADING

That Ways and Means Committee of Congress which has had the Sanborn contracts under investigation, needs reconstructing. See what it has ventured to say of the conduct of the Treasury Department as telegraphed to this morning's OREGONIAN. Without the fear of the rings before its eyes, it blurts right out that the manner in which the Treasury Department was mixed up in those frauds merits the severest condemnation. The English language does not abound with words adapted to be framed into stronger sentences than that. A majority of the members of this committee are Republicans. That is a discouraging circumstance when viewed from the stand point of such great lights as Cameron and Butler. It looks too much as if there were a determination to unload, and when taken in connection with some of the President's recent acts it really looks ominous. If the President unloads and the respectable members of Congress unload at the rate which would seem to be indicated by these events, what is to be left of the Cabinet, and where are the Butlers and Hipples and Pattersons to go? These are questions that the respectables ought to consider carefully before they press this unloading business too far.

In Tennessee the Independent movement already commands the respectful attention of the people, although it was started but four or five weeks ago. Three of the leading Republican and two of the most influential Democratic journals in the State have given in their adherence to the new party. Thus the Memphis Appeal says: "There seems to be a determination in every county to nominate the best men and to give the people an opportunity to select their own candidates, instead of the tricksters and wire-pullers who have heretofore managed this business. We have never seen such a desire, such a determination to have fair nominations—to let the people make their own selection—as is now indicated in every county." All of which speaks well for the future welfare of Tennessee.

Scott $400, Denny $500, Shurtliff $200, Crawford $200, and so forth. That is the way it runs, till the neat little sum of $3 495 is reached. And all to be expended on election at their polling places, and when there is nothing at stake but the town offices. How is that for honesty? How is that for purity of elections? Gentlemen of the ring, how is that for your pretenses of fairness in politics? Don't all answer at once.

FROM UMATILLA COUNTY

A DEMOCRATIC VIEW OF THE SITUATION

PENDLETON May 2, 1874

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

It is understood here that there is a definite agreement between the Republican managers and the Democratic managers, to trade LaDow off and elect Dick Williams to Congress. The story of LaDow's sickness is bosh. He is no more sick than you are. But he is not going to be on the stump. He is out of the race. Mark what I tell you. LaDow is not a candidate. All the votes he gets at the election will be those that can't be induced to vote for the Republican candidate. Every Democratic voter that can be brought over by trading, or otherwise, to vote for the Republican candidate will be brought over, and LaDow is only remaining nominally in the field to keep those Democrats who refuse to vote for a Republican on a Republican ticket from voting for Davenport, the Independent candidate, and thus helping to defeat Dick. It is a job put up to put the State back into the hands of the Republican ring.

But this scheme won't win up here. The more apparent it becomes the more votes will the Independent ticket receive. The Democrats are not to be sold like sheep in the shambles, and many of the hitherto straight Republicans are hugely disgusted. The general talk up here is that since both the parties have practically abandoned their organizations already and their leaders no longer pretend to live up to the idea of discipline which they have tried to enforce upon the people, there is no longer any reason for the people's hanging on to the deserted organizations—at least not for the present election. We are going to choose the men we think will serve us best. And for Congress we know that LaDow is a mere stick, that Dick Williams is the representative of the ring Republicans and does not know which side he is on in regard to finance or the regulation of the railways. Such uncertain men are always worse than no men. We want a man who knows his own opinions without waiting to consult any master. And as Democrats we do not care to cast our votes in such a way as to consolidate and strengthen the Republican party. We count on the return of the elements that now compose the Independents to their old associations before another election, or their extinction, and, therefore we are going to vote for Tim Davenport, who is likely to do our country most good and certain to do our party least harm. This I assure you and your readers is the purpose of many a life long

SCHOOL TAX.—For four or five weeks [illegible] voters of the School District have been [illegible] ing to investigate and discuss matters pertai[illegible] ing to our public schools so as to form an [illegible] intelligent judgment, especially on the subject [illegible] the tax necessary to be levied to raise the requisite amount of money to conduct the [illegible] educational institutions of the District succe[illegible] fully during the ensuing year. After [illegible] many resolutions, expending much very val[illegible] able time and exhibiting a large amount of forensic talent the judgment of the vote[illegible] aforesaid seemed to have been convinced as [illegible] what was required, and that judgment w[illegible] expressed in their vote last Monday evening. Our reporter as faithfully chronicled the step[illegible] which were taken to arrive at this conclusion having listened to numberless speeches [illegible] or less dull and prosy, waded through long reports and solutions, etc., all that the [illegible] we might know just how matters stood, and when the tax was levied that they might know just how much, and why such tax was required. But after all this pain taking those who were not present at the meeting Monday evening were misled by the inexcusable blunder of a compositor whose head never runs on his business who, in spite of plainly written copy and carefully marked proof, made us [illegible] say that [illegible] was levied when we wrote [illegible]. A reporter is supposed to have a great deal of charity but such errors are too much for the average of us to bear uncomplainingly. The motion that was made and carried almost unanimously was that a tax of three and one half mills on the dollar be levied on the taxable property of the District for the support of schools for the ensuing year.

ON THE WAY.—The steamer Ajax which sailed from San Francisco on Tuesday morning for Portland brings the following [illegible] Gen [illegible] U S A and family, Colone[illegible] U S A and family, Mrs I A Savier and daughter [illegible] Staton, W K Leonard, Mrs A [illegible] Dunn [illegible] Mrs W R [illegible] Morse and wife, I Hoffman, A B Maller and son, A M [illegible] R W [illegible] L W [illegible] and wife, Mrs I [illegible] and child, D F Belknap [illegible] W C Davis and family, S M [illegible] W W B [illegible] J [illegible] G F Pearson, F M McD[illegible] C Green, O B[illegible] with and wife, Mrs M Hill and [illegible] J Clark[illegible] J Coon, J C Nel[illegible] J K M[illegible] I High[illegible] J Kohler, I Wa[illegible] C B [illegible] H Sut[illegible] erland [illegible] J V Brown and wife, C W [illegible] Barkhurst and family, Miss M A [illegible] M Foulk, J A [illegible] I A Clark and son, A B Wood and family, M A [illegible] and wife.

I O O F DELEGATES.—We are requested to state that arrangements have been [illegible] with the O S N Co and the two lines of railroad for conveying delegates to and from the [illegible] Grand Lodge I O O F [illegible] Delegates will [illegible] over the O S N Co's line will pay full fare [illegible] but returning will [illegible] certificate from the Grand Secretary [illegible] entitle them to return free of charge. Those who come by other roads will [illegible] fare each way. The delegates are required to present their certificates [illegible] the station agent who will sell tickets [illegible] round trip [illegible] half fare. These tickets will be good from the 18th to the [illegible] of May inclusive. The Grand Lodge will convene in Portland [illegible] the 19th inst.—one week from next Tuesday. It is quite probable that the Lodge will remain in session during the remainder of the week.

SEVERELY KICKED.—The evening cotemporary says: Henry Austin [illegible] man engaged in hauling wood to this city from the hills south of the Red House was severely kicked by one of his horses this morning as he was entering the stable for the purpose of feeding his team. The young man received the blow in the stomach [illegible] shoe cutting an ugly gash. The blow rendered him insensible and the Germans [illegible] was employed hastened to the city and secured a doctor who upon arriving [illegible] the spot found that the wound was not likely to be a dangerous one, its chief injury being the nausea and temporary pain it created.

ADJOURNED MEETING.—The temperance meeting held yesterday in the vestry of the Presbyterian Church after some interesting discussion adjourned until [illegible] P M [illegible]. It is hoped that all wishing to avail themselves of this opportunity to indicate their stand for temperance, will remember the [illegible]

SERENADE.—The 21st Infantry [illegible] played several beautiful airs in front of the Occidental Hotel last evening in honor of General Jeff C Davis commander of the district. The band afterwards played at the St Helens Hall and other places.

The Portland Hibernian Society has decided to hold their annual [illegible] Due announcement of the [illegible] will be made next week.

This evening the first [illegible] will be given at the Progress [illegible] invitation [illegible] The previous [illegible] given at the rooms of this Club have been of a sociable character and the one announced for this evening [illegible] to be even more agreeable. The elite and fashion of the city may be found among the participants.

In another column will be found the announcement of the annual Tammany picnic. Last year the attendance [illegible] was the largest of the season [illegible] to be a most enjoyable affair. That [illegible] will be [illegible] without doubt. The Willamette Chief [illegible] to carry the excursionists, the East Portland Band to furnish the music and Dr Pilkington will deliver an address. The Tribes will parade previous to starting for the picnic grounds on Sauvie's Island.

CITY.

School Tax.—For four or five weeks the voters of the School District have been meeting to investigate and discuss matters pertaining to our public schools, so as to form an intelligent judgment, especially on the subject of the tax necessary to be levied to raise the requisite amount of money to conduct the educational institutions of the District successfully during the ensuing year. After passing many resolutions, expending much very valuable time and exhibiting a large amount of eloquence, the judgment of the voters is said to have been convinced as to what was required, and that judgment was expressed by their vote last Monday evening. Our reporters faithfully chronicled the steps which were taken to arrive at this conclusion, having listened to numberless speeches more or less [illegible] and prosy, waded through long reports and resolutions, etc., all that the readers might know just how matters stood, and when the tax was levied, that they might know just how rich, and why such tax was required. But after all this painstaking, those who were not present at the meeting Monday evening were misled by the inexcusable blunder of a compositor whose head never runs on [illegible], who, in spite of plainly written copy, and clearly marked proof, made us to say that "2 mills" was levied, when we wrote "3½." A reporter is supposed to have a great deal of charity, but such errors are too much for the average of us to bear uncomplainingly. The motion that was made and carried almost unanimously was, "that a tax of three and one half mills on the dollar be levied on the taxable property of the District for the support of schools for the ensuing year."

On the Way.—The steamer Ajax which sailed from San Francisco on Tuesday morning for Portland, brings the following passengers: Gen. Fry, U S A and family, Colonel Stone, U S A, and family, Mrs T A Savior and [illegible], R Eaton, W K Leonard, Mrs A J Dorway, Maj W Rapm, M P Morse and wife, L Holton, A S Miller and son, A M Snyder, E M Kenzie, C W Laufrick, D Williams and wife, Mrs E Burmester and child, D P Rodgers, Col Larrabee, W C Davis and family, S M Emberg, W W Barlow, J Bear, G P Frasier, M McDonald, G Green, G Beckwith and wife, Mrs M Hill and child, J Clark, J Coon, J C Sexton, J K Morrison, J Hight, J Kohler, F W Rogge, C S Raymur, H Sutherland and wife, J V Brown and wife, C W. Barkhurst and family, Miss M Wentworth, A N Foulk, J A Joyce, J A Clarke, wife and son, A B Woodin and family, M A Long and wife.

I. O. O. F. Delegates.—We are requested to state that arrangements have been effected with the O. S. N. Co. and the two lines of railroad, for conveying delegates in attendance on the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., at half fare. Delegates who travel over the O. S. N. Co.'s line will pay full fare on their way to this city, but returning will be furnished with a certificate from the Grand Secretary, which will entitle them to a passage free of charge. Those who come by either railroad will pay half fare each way. The delegates are required to present their certificates to the station agents, who will sell tickets for the round trip at half fare. These tickets will be good from the 18th to the 25th of May inclusive. The Grand Lodge will convene in Portland on the 19th inst.—one week from next Tuesday. It is quite probable that the Lodge will remain in session during the remainder of the week.

Severely Kicked.—The evening contemporary says "Henry Austin, a young man engaged in hauling wood to this city from the hills south of the Red House, was severely kicked by one of his horses this morning, as he was entering the stable for the purpose of feeding his team. The young man received the blow in the stomach, the cork of the shoe cutting an ugly gash. The blow rendered him insensible, and the Germans by whom he was employed hastened to the city and procured a doctor who, upon arriving upon the spot, found that the wound was not likely to be a dangerous one, its chief injury being the nausea and temporary pain it created."

Adjourned Meeting.—The temperance meeting held yesterday in the [illegible] of the Presbyterian Church after some interesting discussion adjourned until 1 P. M. to-day. It is [illegible] that all wishing to avail themselves of the opportunity to indicate their stand for [illegible] will remember the hour.

Serenade.—The 21st Infantry Band played several [illegible] in front of the Occidental Hotel last evening in honor of General Jeff. C. Davis, commander of the district. The band afterwards played at the St. Helen's Hall and other places.

Decision to be Announced.—This morning Judge Deady will announce, in the U. S. Circuit Court, the decision on the motion to substitute Straub, administrator, for the deceased plaintiff, in the case of Barker vs. Ladd et al.

Real Estate Sold.—Yesterday morning A. B. Richardson sold at auction the following property Lot 3, block 114, for $935; lot 4, block 114, $1,400; lots 5 and 6, block 114, $4,[illegible]. Total for the half block, $7,260.

The Crusaders.—About a dozen ladies were out yesterday. Generally they were treated civilly, and attracted little attention. At Moffet's they were driven away by some burning [illegible] which was placed before them.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

The Portland Hibernian Society have decided to hold their annual picnic on the 20th inst. The announcement of the arrangements will be made next week.

This evening the first annual ball will be given at the Progress Club Rooms. It is an [illegible] affair and will therefore be select. Such parties given at the rooms of this club are of a sociable character, and [illegible] noticed for this evening promises [illegible]. The elite and [illegible] of the city may be found among the [illegible].

In [illegible] column will be found the announcement of the annual Tammany picnic. [illegible] the attendance at their picnic was [illegible] the season and it proved to be a [illegible] able affair. That the one to come will be as pleasant, we have not the slightest doubt. The Willamette Chief is engaged to carry the excursionists, the East Portland Band will furnish the music and Dr. Pilkington will deliver the address. The Tribes will [illegible] prior to starting for the picnic grounds [illegible] Island.

BASE BALL.

Our local clubs are waiting for better weather, in about two weeks a good game may be expected.

The "Hoods" and "Never Sweats," of Vancouver played a game on Tuesday afternoon—the former winning by a score of 42 to 29. A correspondent says it was amusing on account of the awkwardness of the players, and there was much fun. Mr. Cooley, of the Star Club, [illegible].

New Styles.—A thorough inspection of the new spring styles in Clothing and Furnishing Goods by Mr. J. D. Schaaf of J. O'NEILL & CO., in San Francisco, has resulted in the selection of everything new, and that firm have just completed opening the new stock. Their customers and the public generally are invited to call and examine the new arrivals. Mr. Schaaf's selections express [illegible] Portland trade, and the new goods will be [illegible] to please the most fastidious. Call.

The public mind is occupied over the late defeat, about the P. D. & S. L. R. R., and where to procure that needed article—Clothing. AMUSEMENTS.

Want of space will preclude the notice of the concert at Masonic Hall last night, which the excellence of the entertainment merits. The audience was too much crowded for comfort, every inch of space in the hall being occupied, and many persons who applied for admission were unable to find even standing room. The programme as published was carried out fully, and we can truthfully say that each and all did their parts well. But few persons have appeared before the Portland public who excelled some of the performers last night. The orchestra, composed of members of the 21st Infantry Band, discoursed several pieces of music in superb style, which were most heartily cheered. Theirs was the best instrumental music we have heard in a long time. Mrs. Gilbert sang a fine solo, which was encored, as was also the trio by Messrs. O'Brien, Hayden and Tuttle, and the quartet by the Amphion Quartet Club, consisting of Messrs. Franklin, Moise, Morgan and Struble. Dr. Pilkington and H. H. Northup, Esq., each read a humorous sketch and excited the cheers and risibilities of their hearers. The piano and organ duets by Messrs. DeProns and Thielsen, were very excellent. Mr. P. is chief at the organ. Dr. C. M. Brown, in his Dutch comicalities, brought down the house as usual. Carl Bosco entertained and delighted the audience for twenty minutes with his optical illusions. The farce of "A Little More Cider" was well put on, considering the youthfulness of the performers. It was presented by Misses Amanda Stitzel, Carrie Dalton and Lillie Murray, and Masters Chas. Ladd, Julius Thielsen, Geo. Upton, H. Thielsen and Martin Winch. The concert was a grand success, both as a pleasing entertainment and a financial enterprise, and the very liberal patronage bestowed, is but another indication of the generous spirit of the people of Portland toward all charitable institutions not the least deserving of which was the recipient of the benefit of last evening—the Ladies' Relief Society.

Much credit is especially due to the Twenty-First Infantry Band, which did so much to contribute to the pleasure of the occasion, as well to the ladies and the gentlemen who rendered material assistance.

We have been informed that the entertainment will probably be repeated at an early day.

Several weeks ago the Portland Amateur Dramatic Association was organized in this city. This Association includes in its membership a number of leading amateurs of the city, the most of whom have appeared at different times before this public, and in various roles, in a very acceptable and creditable manner. Since the organization of this company the members have had an old, well known, but very popular play in active course of preparation. This piece is the familiar "Streets of New York," which all have doubtless seen rendered many times. The rehearsals have been held under the control and direction of Mr. R. C. White, a gentleman of very extensive experience in matters connected with the stage. To Mr. White's judicious management and experience is attributable the great measure of success which attended the production of the "Color Guard" and "Lady of the Lake" more than to any other one cause. He has taken great care and omitted no pains to place the forthcoming play on the stage in the best possible manner, and there is little doubt but what he will succeed, even beyond public expectation. The various characters of the drama have been assigned to those persons who are the best adapted to the peculiar line and style of delineation required. Just how well each and every individual will acquit himself or herself remains, of course, to be seen and judged by the public. The following is the cast of all the principal characters: Adam Fairweather, H. D. Chapman; Gideon Bloodgood, R. C. White, Tom Badger, C. M. Brown; Mark Livingstone, Frank Beardsley; Paul Fairweather, W. G. Gilbert, Puffy, F. Gere, Edwards, C. P. Yates; Daniels, John Doherty; Alida Bloodgood, Mrs L. H Briggs; Lucy Fairweather, Mrs. W. G. Gilbert; Mrs. Puffy, Miss Minnie Welch; Mrs. Fairweather, Miss Ella Ball. Rehearsals have been held every night for a week past, and a very encouraging degree of proficiency has been acquired by this amateur company. This evening a dress rehearsal will be held at the theater; also one to-morrow afternoon. To-morrow evening "The Streets of New York" will be produced for the first time by this company, on which occasion we shall expect to witness a crowded house.

JUST FROM STIKINE.

Mr. McIntosh, a well known gentleman of this city, arrived here yesterday evening, overland, from Victoria. He was a passenger on the Otter, which arrived at Victoria on Monday, directly from Fort Wrangell. Mr. M. left the mines on the 15th of April. He arrived at Buck's Bar on the 23d, and at Wrangell on the 25th. At Buck's Bar he embarked in a canoe and descended the river in two days. He reports the river open and free of ice, excepting along the banks. About 500 men are at Buck's Bar and the mines, and about that number along the river and at Wrangell. On the way down the river, Mr McIntosh met a number of persons in canoes and small boats, beating along up the stream. Some 30 canoes, laden with men and provisions, were met but a short distance above Wrangell. At the Fort he found quite a large number of men who were waiting to start up. On the following day, after his arrival at Wrangell, about 40 canoes started up the river. It would probably take them ten days to reach Buck's Bar, as the current is strong, and a number of rapids will oppose their ascent. At the mines, Mr. M. reports that the snow was about 2½ feet deep and the weather very cold when he left. There was but very little mining going on. The Otter left Wrangell on the 27th ult., and arrived at Victoria on the 4th inst. While on the way to the latter port, the Otter met three steamers—Hope, Lenora and Isabella—which are to ply on the Stikine. The Isabella had on board about 150 passengers, a large quantity of supplies and 25 head of horses. These horses and a portion of the supplies were for the use of the gangs of men who are now engaged in opening the trail from Buck's Bar into the mines. Only about 25 miles of the trail is now opened. The new trail will lead through a tolerably level country but heavily timbered most of the distance—125 miles.

A large force of men are now engaged in cutting a trail, and it will soon be opened through. By the time the trail is open, there will be a large number of pack animals at Buck's Bar to convey the supplies into the mines. Provisions were abundant at the mines when our informant left, but very dear. Flour is $1 per pound, bacon, $1 25; beans, $1 25; coffee, $3; tea, $3; and no sugar for "love or money." Most of the miners have on hand a good stock of supplies—sufficient to last until the first of June. The three steamers spoken of are probably ere this ascending the stream towards the land of gold. The intention is to ascend to Buck's Bar, although there are very swift rapids some ten or twelve miles below that point. From present appearances there will be a grand exodus when the Stikine is open to navigation.

VANCOUVER ITEMS

The water in the Columbia is rising very slowly at present. This cool, cloudy weather is not favorable to the melting of the snows in the mountains, and the delay makes the prospects for very high water in June more certain.

The County Commissioners' Court is in session this week. But little business has thus far been transacted. On Monday there was considerable excitement over the question of a bridge across Lewis river. It was finally agreed to leave it to a commission of disinterested parties who should visit the disputed points and decide upon a location. The interested and disinterested parties have now gone on their mission, and in a few days the vexed question will be settled

On Monday last, Mr. Morrice, of Portland, met with a very serious accident while returning from Salmon creek. H. N. Kress and Morrice, with one or two others who went along just "to see the bad boys get drowned," had been trouting. On the return, meeting with one of our Nimrods who had just killed a fine deer, a "quarter" was offered Kress, who strapped it on the back of his pony. On the way said pony stumbled and fell, throwing Kress to the ground. This frightened Morrice's horse, which ran down a long, steep hill and piled his rider and himself in the ditch at the foot. Any one who has tried the metal of "Malcolm" can imagine the perilous situation of Morrice in his fearful ride down the hill. Procuring a carriage he, was brought into town in the evening. He was severely bruised, but was able to proceed home on Monday.

The storekeeper who can lay in large and varied Stocks of Goods, should be able to afford his patrons excellent opportunities to purchase just what they want at the lowest figures. This is just what JOS. KOHN, opposite National Bank, invariably does. His latest importations are so varied and the prices marked down so low that all can be accommodated. Be sure and look through his stock.

From R. R. Riley, remonstrating against the proposed improvement of Twelfth street. Referred to the Committee on Streets and Public Property.

REPORTS.

From the Committee on Fire and Water, inclosing a deed from the Lownsdale heirs to the ground formerly occupied by the building of Hook and Ladder Co. No 1. Report adopted, and the Auditor authorized to have the deed recorded.

From the Committee on River Improvements, stating that they had received various bids from a number of persons for the purchase of the dredger, snag-puller, scows, etc. The highest bid—$2,125—was offered by Mr. Scott, and the Committee recommended that his bid be accepted. Report adopted.

The following communication was read from the Police Commissioners.

OFFICE OF POLICE COMMISSIONERS,
PORTLAND, April 24, 1874.

To the Common Council of the City of Portland—
GENTS: A certified copy of the following resolution, adopted by your body on the 15th inst., has been handed to me by Mr Caldwell, Auditor and Clerk:

"Resolved, That the Common Council respectfully request the Police Commissioners to instruct the Chief of Police to report any and all failures to light the lamps of the city, and keep a record in his office wherein shall be specified and designated the locality of such delinquency."

In reply, permit me to inform your body, that on the 2d day of November 1870 the Board of Police Commissioners adopted the following rule "Policemen shall report to the Chief of Police all lamps not lighted at the proper time, uncleaned, or in any way out of order on their beats" This rule was adopted again in the revision of the "Rules and Regulations" by the Board and published in August, 1872. Prior to this latter date, minutes of the policemen's reports relating to the lamps were entered in the Watch Book, and subsequently, a book called the Lamp Book has been kept in the office, in which is entered all deficiencies observed by the officers concerning the lighting, cleaning, &c. of the lamps.

This duty required of the policeman, has been somewhat a vexatious one to perform. You will remember that at several periods of time in the past three years, the street lamps have been lighted under no specific contract, and at other periods, contracts have been made requiring the lamps to be lighted according to a specified time schedule.

These schedules, I have no doubt you have preserved carefully among your files secure from intrusion. It is prudent, certainly to take good care and keep some contracts from rude contact with "public gaze," but it is very inconvenient to policemen who have duties to perform under them, as in this instance whereby their only means of judging "that the lamps are lighted properly" is to guess that the persons attending them all know their business. Therefore to comply with your request with greater precision, I am directed to respectfully ask you to furnish the Chief of Police's office with a certified copy of the schedule of time your contracts require the lamps to be lighted and put out each day. Respectfully yours, etc.,

A. B HALLOCK, Prest of the B. of P. C.

The communication was filed, and the Superintendent of streets instructed to furnish the Commissioners with a copy of the schedule time under the existing contract.

From the viewers of the latter extension of North First street, with accompanying benefits and damages accruing therefrom. Laid on the table.

The following report was read from the City Treasurer:

To the Honorable the Common Council: I herewith return Tax Roll for 1873 showing collections made by me as follows:

Amount of tax as per roll		$94,406 52
New assessments, etc		68 75

Animated Machinery.

Our bodies are like time-pieces. When they run down we must wind them up, otherwise they will stop forever. What key will best perform this work of renovation? Experience has shown that it can be accomplished more rapidly and certainly by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters than by any other article under the sun. That searching yet harmless agent seems to reach every spring, and lever, and wheel, so to speak, of the living machine. The relaxed nerves are braced, the torpid liver is stirred, the weak stomach is strengthened, the disordered bowels are regulated, the lost appetite is restored, the clouded mind is brightened—in short the whole ment system is stimulated into healthy action. New life is put into every failing fibre and physical regeneration ensues. This is the testimony of thousands. In every city, town and village of the Union living proofs of its efficacy may be found.

THURSDAY MORNING MAY 7, 1874

DONN PIATT GETS ONE OF HIS RELATIVES INTO TROUBLE.

WASHINGTON D C April 21, 1874.—The following editorial appeared in the last issue of Piatt's Sunday Capital

The Hon McKee of Illinois but representing at present a large African district in Mississippi, is not happy He belongs to the modern school of statesmen who have flocked up in swarms from the sunny south and taken the places of the Calhouns, Prentisses and Bentons of the days of yore A school whose cardinal article of faith—it has no cardinal virtue, except it make one of necessity—is greed and self aggrandizement and whose least concern is for the good of the commonwealth. The Hon McKee was conspicuous in the early days of the session for clinging to the salary grab with a deathless grasp, and arguing how insignificant a compensation of $7,500 per annum really was for his congressional services On Wednesday this legislative pumpkin-head disclosed the corroding grievance of his heart The door-keeper of the house of representatives will not respond to his demands. He can get no patronage He wants offices for his friends and henchmen He insists upon a division of the spoils, He darkly insinuates there is a ring and he isn't in it Something must be done The Mississippi statesman must be conciliated—or he will have bl-ud

The subject of the above article did not see it until the neighborhood of his breakfast hour the next day. When he did see it, he became so mad that ice had to be applied to his head to keep him from becoming a raving lunatic. He charged around town in a wild rage, a short time after, seeking Col Piatt Piatt was out of town on a visit to Cincinnati McKee did not know this, during the course of his wild search he came to the Capital office, at four o'clock in the afternoon, and inquired for Col Piatt He was informed that he was out of the city, and that during his absence the paper was in charge of John Jones Piatt, a cousin of Col. Piatt's, and the librarian of the house of representatives.

"Is he in?" said McKee

"No, you will find him at his room, up at the capitol"

Away [illegible] McKee, switching a rattan walking stick viciously in the air

Piatt, the librarian, was there, fixing up his books, preparatory to going home He is a quiet, gentlemanly fellow, a poet, and universally popular with every one. He was about to leave the library when a messenger entered, saying McKee, of Mississippi, wished to see him He was coming out, when McKee entered saying as he did so

"Are you the responsible editor of the Capital?"

"During the absence of Colonel Piatt I am" said the librarian

"Did you write this article about me?" shouted McKee, at this showing the article at the head of this column

"No," said the librarian, "I did not write the article itself, but I read the proof of it"

This was enough for McKee Said he "Then, sir, since you allowed it to go in you are responsible, take that for it," and thus saying he struck Piatt a terrible blow across the face with his stinging-rattan McKee added as he struck the blow "There I consider the account squared now" and with this he left, Piatt being so bewildered, not offering to make any resistance

This incident has been a delightful source of gossip among the members to day Many sympathised with the librarian for being made to suffer for somebody else's satire, and quite a number who have been lashed by Colonel Piatt, regretted that the victim of the blow was not really Piatt the editor, instead of the editor pro tem

This is not McKee's first controversy with a newspaper editor, during one of his campaigns in Mississippi, before he came up to Congress, he openly challenged McArdle of the Vicksburg Times to a duel with pistols, rifles or swords As he is a dead shot and a remarkable swordsman it was a mere challenge for McArdle to go into his grave, and not being tired of life he wisely refrained from accepting the [illegible] challenge of the carpet-bag [illegible] McKee called McArdle a liar, a coward and every epithet he could call him and at a public meeting where, in the peculiar atmosphere of Mississippi [illegible] affronts are mortal In every way [illegible] McKee seek to get up an affair with McArdle, openly avowing in a public speech that he owed it as a duty to society to put such a man out of the way for his [illegible] slanders Now, McArdle's stories about McKee might not have been slanders A man who backs up his character with a pistol ball, or the club of a bully, generally has not much character worth mentioning

The new style of retaliation begun here of late will necessitate correspondents arming themselves The profession promises to abound in as many dangers here as in Washington as in Paris For a correspondent to come here and tell the truth is daily growing to involve more risk When Col Piatt comes home I think he will make it sufficiently interesting for McKee The Colonel is a fighting man and when attacked never runs

CHARLES SUMNER'S SUCCESSOR.—William B. Washburn the Governor of Massachusetts, and the newly elected Senator of that State, was born in Winchendon, Mass, on January 31 1820. He graduated at Yale College in the year 1844 and has since been engaged in manufacturing pursuits. He has for nearly a quarter of a century taken an active part in State and national politics. He served as a member of the State Senate in 1850, and of the Lower House in 1854. He has served three terms in Congress as Representative from Massachusetts He was first elected to the Thirty eighth Congress, and served on the Committees on Invalid Pensions and Roads and Canals He was re-elected to the Thirty ninth Congress, served on the Committees on Claims and Revolutionary Pensions. He was elected and served as a delegate to the Philadelphia "Loyalists Convention" in 1866, and was again re-elected to serve in the Fortieth Congress In 1871 he was elected Governor of his native State and was re-elected in 1872 to the same position In 1873 he was again re-elected Governor of the State, which office he at present fills When in Congress he enjoyed in a marked degree the confidence of his associates, and although not gifted with great oratorical powers he was always able to command the respect and attention of the House He is a man whose character is unblemished and, although Massachusetts has more able men among her citizens, she has none who can excel Governor Washburn in integrity of character and purity of motives

A FOOLISH DOG.—In the lower part of the city the other day, the humane proprietor of three or four newly born kittens, rather than plunge them in the Charybdis of the family wash-tub, quietly stole away with them to a vacant lot and there abandoned them in the hope that some kind persons might come along and take them home Soon after their abandonment a foolish he dog that was capering about in the vicinity, happened to spy them, and, after frisking about them for a few minutes, he caught one up in his mouth and carried it off to his kennel He then returned and got another and kept up his trips until he got all of them to his quarters. Up to last accounts he was taking good care of them and seemed quite fond of his extraordinary position Some of the boys think he is only saving them until they become larger and fatter, so that he can make a good meal of them but his conduct indicates a genuine affection for the helpless little creatures, and he is such a fool of a dog that he may have decided to rear them.—[illegible]

Miscellaneous

The produce market is very quiet now farmers are paying all their attention to their spring crops and find but little time to investigate the markets Hence the few offers of produce change hands quickly at rates in a great measure governed by the wants of the trade in the matter of the commodity offered

Advices of the latest date from the coffee growing countries and other points have served to check the decline which seemed probable in the markets of the coast a few weeks ago The San Francisco market is quoted firm and importers predict no further reduction in this much used article this year

The shipment of 100 tons of pig iron from the Works at Oswego by the schooner Lovet Peacock is a noteworthy fact in Oregon's commerce and one which we hope will be often repeated as the supply is almost inexhaustible Prices of iron are now low in the East, but we trust the result of this shipment will be to the profit of the Company as it is to the credit of our State

We are informed that several of the mills in the interior of our State are now closed some in order to renovate before beginning to grind on the next wheat crop and others for lack of the raw material The surplus wheat and flour for export yet supposed to be in the State is not much over 10 000 tons Comparatively a small amount of either will be carried over into next harvest year

Advices from San Francisco discourage the shipment of oats from Oregon and prices here growing weaker, it is probable we shall be compelled to quote at 40 cents per bushel for sacked before another week closes

The Mark Lane Express of April 6th gives wheat quotations which are very flattering to Oregon as they show that Oregon wheat leads the market of the world Sales were reported as follows Wheat 21 cargoes in all viz California [illegible] to 61s 6d Chirka 52s 6d to 54s 10½d spring [illegible] Marianopoli [illegible] Oregon 63s 6d Chilian 60s

SOME RED FIGURES

FURTHER EVIDENCE OF GOVERNOR GROVER'[illegible] STEALINGS

SALEM May 5th 1874

To THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

While examining questions of taxation and expenses of the State allow me to give one item C A Reed offered Chadwick Secreta[illegible] ry of State all the second and third stories of the Opera House in Salem for $1 500 per year The house has more capacity than the present buildings rented by the State and yet the State pays

	Per Year
Jos. Holman	$2 00[illegible]
Grover & Miller	[illegible]
Bill Watkinds	[illegible]
Bill Griswold	[illegible]
Making	$ 76[illegible]

For which see report of Secretary of State f[illegible] 1872 To which must be added

Room of Grover and Miller	$ [illegible]
Rooms of Tom Patton	[illegible]

Making a total of $4 900 per year rents which is $2 800 more than is necessary at the pure "spoils of party"

This sum for four years makes a treasury leak of $11 [illegible] and from present appearances the capital buildings will not be capable of use for the next four years which will make the bill foot up for the eight years of M[illegible] Grover's administration the [illegible] $ [illegible]2400 a sum sacrificed to the cause of party M[illegible] Chadwick having declined [illegible] take the Opera House [illegible] point out Al [illegible] to his friend

Now until about [illegible] term [illegible] above unnecessary and extravagant expense and no reasonable excuse [illegible] the same space is at [illegible] House could have been [illegible] ing the last four years [illegible] for $1 500 per year

THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL—A W[illegible] patch of April 29th [illegible] was taken up in the Senate [illegible] publican majority propose [illegible] until it is disposed of [illegible] ing that it should be acted on without [illegible] but the Democratic Senators will probably [illegible] cuss its provisions for several days [illegible] offer numerous amendments [illegible] will be adopted [illegible] the bill as it comes from the Judi[illegible] mittee
